Eastern District of Tennessee
Chattanooga

JOSEPH RICHARD FREDRICKSON
VS.
BEDFORD COUNTY JAIL

CASE NO. 4:15-CN-00024-HSM-WBC
PETITION FOR REDRESS OF GRIEVANCES; MOTION TO COMPEL DEFENDANT TO COMPLY AND MOTION TO PROCEED
IN FORMA PAUPERIS

Now comes Joseph Richard Fredrickson, hereafter "Plaintiff", and submits this as formal request to proceed, in this case, "In Forma Pauperis" and to compel the Bedford County Jail, hereafter "Defendant", to comply with reasonable requests, of Plaintiff, to produce required documents and materials needed to properly, adequately, reasonably and fairly prepare, in this case, based upon the following reasons.

MOTION TO COMPEL DEFENDANT

On 5/6/2015, the court received Plaintiff's pro se prisoner's complaint and filed it accordingly.

The Court informed Plaintiff that he must pay the filing fee or submit documents to proceed in forma pauperis.

Accordingly, plaintiff made formal request of defendant for the required account information and was verbally denied by administrators / staff employed by Defendant, for the purpose of, both knowingly and intentionally, preventing plaintiff from moving forward in this case.

Due to the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff humbly requests that this Court order defendant to comply and cooperate with Plaintiff in this matter.

MOTION TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS

Based upon the reasons, in the foregoing motion, Plaintiff humbly requests that this Court allow him to proceed, in this case, in forma pauperis, as he can not afford and is unable to pay aforementioned fees, in this case, and Defendant is taking purposeful actions to prevent Plaintiff from moving forward based upon this technicality.

Respectfully Submitted

Joseph Richard Fredrickson
(Plaintiff)
